

Fingerspelling is a way of signing numbers using hand movements.

Why not try to learn these numbers.

These are illustrations for right-handed people. If you are left-handed, please reverse the sign like the sample shown here.

Learn to fingerspell with DLR

4

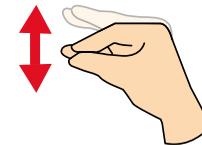

6

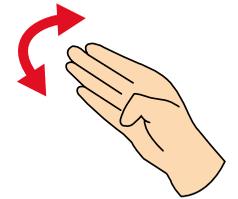

8

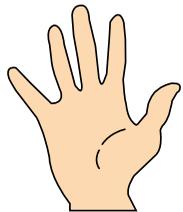

10

12

14

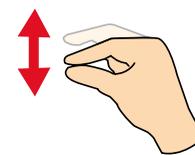

5

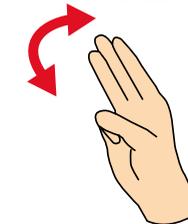

7

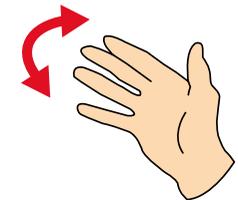

9

11

13

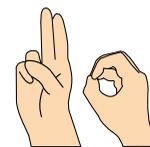

15

16

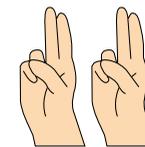

18

20

21

22

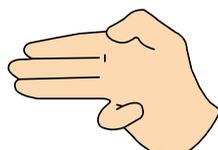

23

24

17

19

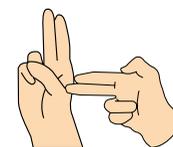

25

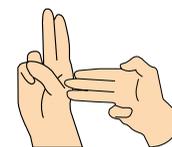

26

27

28

29

30

Learn to sign food & drink

Sign language is used by over 150,000 people in the UK alone.

It is used mainly by people who are deaf or have hearing impairments.

Why not try to learn these simple, helpful, everyday words and phrases.

Visit

www.british-sign.co.uk
for more information.

These are illustrations for right-handed people. If you are left-handed, please reverse the sign like the sample shown here.

Hello/Goodbye right-handed

Hello/Goodbye left-handed

Hello/goodbye

Wave hand near side of head.

Thank you

Flat hand starts with fingertips on chin. Hand moves down and away from signer.

Please

Flat hand starts with fingertips on chin. Hand moves down and away from signer.

Where

Both flat hands with palms facing upwards make circular movements in front of body - with questioning expression.

Money/Cost?

Top hand with thumb tip held against fingers. Top hand taps open palm of bottom hand.

Tea

Index finger and thumb touch to form a circle. Hand held at shoulder height twists at wrist twice towards face.

Coffee

Fingerspelled 'C' hand held at shoulder height twists towards mouth twice.

Water

Flat hand makes short downwards movement on throat twice.

Drink

Primary hand mimes drinking out of a glass.

Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner / Food

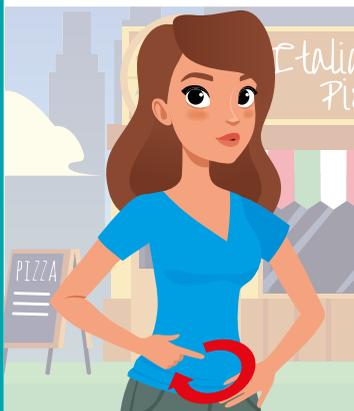

Bunched fingers and thumb of primary hand tap mouth twice.

Burger

Both hands open in a 'C' shape facing each other, move towards mouth twice.

Pizza

Index finger of primary hand makes circle outline above flat palm of secondary hand.

Cake

Clawed hand rests on top of flat hand (palm down).

Vegetarian

Fingerspell 'V' tapping other palm twice.

Ice Cream

Closed hand held in front of mouth makes 2 small downward movements (tongue out slightly).